

Bio

Daniel D. Hutto is Professor of Philosophical Psychology at the University of Wollongong. His most recent books, include: Wittgenstein and the End of Philosophy (Palgrave, 2006) and Folk Psychological Narratives (MIT, 2008). He is co-author of the award-winning Radicalizing Enactivism (MIT, 2013), designated a Choice Outstanding Academic Title and given honourable mention at the PROSE Awards for “pioneering works of research ... landmark works in their fields”. He is also editor of Narrative and Understanding Persons (CUP, 2007) and Narrative and Folk Psychology (Imprint Academic, 2009). A special yearbook, Radical Enactivism, focusing on his philosophy of intentionality, phenomenology and narrative, was published in 2006. He regularly speaks at conferences and expert meetings for clinical psychiatrists, educationalists, narratologists, neuroscientists and psychologists.